NOTICES.

The Editor wishes to thank several students who have kindly helped with the Address List, especially Misses Bernau, Cooper, L. G. Edwards, Davis, and Henderson. If anyone sees any mistakes or omissions which she can rectify, the Editor would be more than grateful to hear from her.

It may interest students to know the following:—Miss C. F. Barnett is in Switzerland, engaged in translation work for publication; Miss C. J. Smyth is at home, on furlough; Miss G. Edwards has started a school at Rye; Mrs. Wakefield is in England, home from China; Miss Gore now manages the P.N.E.U. Painting Portfolio; Mrs. George Tovey is in England, home from India; Miss R. M. Williams is teaching at an Indian Government School in Canada; Miss E. J. Carter is in England, home from Colorado; and Miss L. C. Dixon is temporary assistant organizer of L.C.C. Children's Care Work.

Messrs. Gowan & Gray, of 5, Robert Street, Adelphi, W.C., publish five little 6d. books, full of excellent photographs, of all the Cathedrals of France and England, which are of the greatest help in the architecture in Class III. The booklets are called "Cathedrals of England" (2 vols.) and "Cathedrals of France" (3 vols.), and they are also issued in two bound volumes at 1s. 6d. and 2s. respectively. There is a small amount of letterpress.

There were only five people at the Students' Meeting held on December 6th, the smallest of the term. The students present were Misses Kitching, MacSheehy, Gray, Evans, and Thorp, and Miss Franklin turned up just as we were all leaving. The talk turned naturally to the Conference, and also to the need felt by many of a transition class from IB. to II. This is to be one of the subjects for discussion at the Conference.

Seventeen Students wended their way to Chilworth Street on January 3rd, and it was delightful to have such a good meeting for the first of the New Year, and we hope it promises well for large attendances at future meetings. It was a very representative gathering, too, for there were some who were there before Scale How days—one at least who has never even seen it—some who have only just finished their training, and one present and one future member of the staff. Many come in January who cannot come during term time, and it is pleasant to see fresh faces. We had hoped to have the pleasure of Miss Kitching's company, but found a letter from her saying that she and Miss Mason had been detained at Windermere, as the cold weather had made the latter unwell, but they hoped to return to Scale How in a day or two.
